

The K-LOVE radio network is the only station that my family listens to. We love the content and the fact that it is commercial free. It is a station that I do not need to screen for my children to listen to. We have several stations programed on our radio so that where ever we drive we can find K-LOVE. Please do not implement LPFM if it will have any effect on my ability to listen to K-Love.